39 E. Monte Vista, Phoenix, Arizona
Time: 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Speaker: Dr. Jay Q. Butler
Associate Professor of Real Estate
Director, Realty Studies, W.P Carey School of Business

Topic: A review of Arizona's current and potential real estate market

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Dr. Jay Q. Butler is an Associate Professor of Real Estate at the Polytechnic campus. He also holds the Arizona Realtors Professorship in Real Estate. Dr. Butler has been at ASU since 1972. He earned his B.B.A. (1967) and MBA (1969) from the University of New Mexico and his Ph.D. from the University of Washington.

He oversees projects that examine all aspects of the Arizona real estate market, with specific interest in the Phoenix metropolitan area. The main project is the Phoenix Metropolitan Housing Study (PMHS), which is a quarterly comprehensive analysis of the housing market (single-family, townhouse/condominium, and multifamily) based on 33 housing districts.

In addition to these projects, Realty Studies also provides information on the Arizona construction industry and residential sales activity and affordability in the Phoenix metropolitan area that appear in Arizona Business and other publications. Dr. Butler has also published in other journals such as Appraisal Journal, Arizona Realtors Digest, Annals of Regional Science, Journal of Real Estate Practice and Education, and Teaching in Higher Education. He is also a frequent guest speaker and instructor in many continuing educational programs.

In addition to directing several research projects, he also teaches in the Real Estate Program in the W.P. Carey School of Business School. The Real Estate Program integrates creative classroom instruction and real-world application to prepare students for leadership roles in the rapidly changing real estate environment.
